An Act to transmit into the Chancery and Exchequer certain Orders and Instructions of Parliament, concerning Tonnage and Poundage of Goods and Merchandizes, with the Book of Rates of the same.

BE it enacted by this present Parliament, and by the Authority thereof, That one Ordinance made the sixteenth day of December, 1647, entitled, An Ordinance of the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, for the esta-bliſhing of the Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, together with the book of Rates from the twenty ſixth of March 1648, untill the twenty ſixth of March, 1651, the book of Rates in the ſame Ordinance mentioned and the Orders and Inſtructions in the ſame ſpecified remaining in the cuſtody of Henry Scobell Eſquire Clerke of the Parliament, together with this preſent act, ſhall forthwith be tranſmitted into the Chancery, and from thence by Mittimus under the Great Seale of England, to be ſent into the Exchequer, for proceeding thereupon to be according to the contents and tenor and true intent and meaning of the ſame, and that the Lords Commiſsioners of the Great Seale ſhall alſwell award under the ſame Seale a Writ of Certiorari directed to the ſaid Clerke of the Parliament for the certifying of the ſame into the Chancery, as alſo thereupon a Writ of Mittimus timus under the same Seale, with the tenors of the same Orders, booke of Rates and Instructions, and this present Act into the Exchequer as aforesaid and the Certificate and Returne of the said Henry Scobell so to be made as aforesaid by vertue of the said writ of Certiorari, or by any other writ or writs to be to him out of the Chancery directed, shall be as valid and sufficient in the Law as if the same had been by John Browne Esquire or by any other Clerke of the House of Peeres. And it is likewise further enacted, That the clause in the Ordinance of the twenty sixth of December aforesaid, whereby the power of Compositions for forfeited Goods and Merchandise is restrained to the Kings Attorney or Solicitor Generall, as of the Quorum shall be enlarged and given to the Barons of the Exchequer, the Attorney Generall, and Solicitor Generall for the time being or to any two of them, the same former Ordinance notwithstanding.
